Dear Superintendent Manhas,

Congratulations on having your district's website, the Seattle Public School District, selected as one of the nation's top public school websites for 2007.

We were particularly impressed with the clean fresh look of your site.

Each year WantToTeach.com, the nation's premier website for posting teaching and administrative openings, selects its Ten Top School Websites. We use the following criteria to make our decision:

- 1) Functionality - useful information and ease of access.
- 2) Design - a sharp design designating a sense of pride in one's school.
- 3) Imagination - a sense of imagination present in the site
- 4) Timeliness - the site is maintained and current.

You can view this placement by going to the following web address -

If you wish to add this award to your website, you can obtain a graphic to use at the following URL: <http://www.wanttoteach.com/bannerad.html> and size it to fit your website.

We particularly commend your web designer for creating an all-round high-quality site.

Sincerely,
