

Recyclable materials include:

- Paper and Cardboard
 - Clean paper and mail (staples and window envelopes OK)
 - Magazines, brochures and flyers
 - Shredded paper – bagged (long strips only, not confetti)
 - Flattened Cardboard (size limit: 3'x3')
 - Frozen food boxes (liner removed)
- Plastics
 - Plastic bottles, jugs, and jars (no lids)
 - Plastic dairy tubs
 - Plastic retail bags (bagged in one plastic bag, tied securely)
 - Plastic film, shrink wrap, bubble wrap (bagged in one plastic bag, tied securely)
- Metal
 - Aluminum cans
 - Tin cans
 - Scrap metal
- Glass
 - Bottles and jars (no lids)

Do not recycle:

Aerosol cans, batteries, art projects that contain glue or paint, carbon paper, CDs, ceramics or dishes, detergent boxes, diapers, empty motor oil containers or greasy car parts, food waste, light bulbs or fluorescent lights, medical needles or sharps, mirrors or window glass, paper towels, paper plates or napkins, plastic or waxed cardboard, plastic cups, plastic plates or utensils, loose plastic bags, Styrofoam blocks or packing peanuts, tissue or foil wrapping paper, tissues or toilet paper, toxic containers, waxed paper