

International Education

Program

World
Languages

World Languages

- Communication
- Cultures
- Connections
- Comparisons
- Communities

Academic Excellence

Academic Excellence

Reading

Writing

Communication

Math

Science

Social Studies

Health

Arts

International Business Technology

Physical Education Global Health

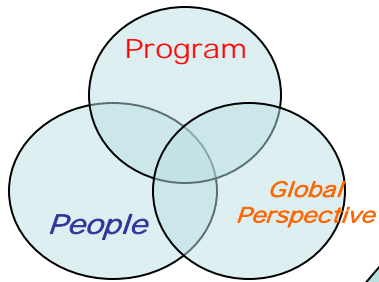

Extended Day Activities

Achieving A Global Perspective Through Academics

- Languages – Spanish, Japanese, English, Mandarin
- Writing – Writing Process, 6 traits of writing, Non-Fiction (Modes of Writing), GLAD Strategies, Writing in the target language.
- Reading – Literature around the world. Reading in the target language.
- Math – District Math Curriculum
- Social Studies – K-5 World Curriculum, iEARN projects, 8th Grade International Research Project
- Science – District Science Kits with International perspective, Biodiesel Fuel Lab Series

Achieving a Global Perspective Through Academics

- Art – International Artists in Residence, District Art Curriculum, International performance arts.
- PE/Health – International Games, Global Health issues
- Music – International Music, International Choir
- Technology – Video Conferencing, Adobe Project, Bridges to understanding, State of the Art Technology
- Social Skills Curriculum – Second Step K-2, Steps to Respect/Anti-Bullying Curriculum 3-5 and 6-8, YMCA Community Learning Center HOST Program
- International Business – Internships locally and abroad, business language.

Global Perspective

- Global Challenges
- Culture & World Areas
- Global Connections

Fostering a Global Perspective through Partnerships with the Community

- Business Community

- Languages needed NOW and 10 YEARS from now – Spanish, Japanese, Mandarin
- Proficiency in second language
- Learning Experience – Computer/IT, Interpersonal skills, Leadership—Adaptability—Innovation
Cross-cultural communication skills, Cultural Cues
- Knowledge of Geography and World Cultures
- Essential Skills – Character, Integrity, Work Ethic

- School Connections

- Future International Educational Opportunities

- Additional Elementary, Middle and High schools in other parts of Seattle
- UW, Seattle University and other universities

Cultural Competency

International School Global Citizen

Culturally aware students prepared to communicate and achieve.