

More meetings coming soon:

We are in the process of scheduling additional community and drop-in meetings to continue discussions of Student Assignment Plan revisions with the public. These will be scheduled at various times and locations around Seattle.

Please check back for exact locations and times. We look forward to seeing you there!