Jane Addams K-8 to hold opening celebration Wednesday, Sept. 2

Jane Addams K-8 will hold an opening celebration September 2 at the Jane Addams building. Students who will be attending Jane Addams this school year are invited to a barbecue between 6 and 6:45 p.m.

At 6:45 p.m., Chief Academic Officer Susan Enfield, Middle School Instructional Director Ruth Medsker, and Principal Deborah Nelsen will make some opening remarks.

Following the remarks, guests are invited to attend an Open House and visit the classrooms. For more information, contact the school office at (206) 252-4500 or visit the Jane Addams school Web page at <http://www.seattleschools.org/schools/janeaddams/>.

Jane Addams will focus on building a new program concentrating on environmental science, as well as providing a rigorous academic program. The school will offer the Spectrum program for gifted students, bilingual services for English Language Learners, special education services, and visual arts opportunities.
