POLICY

There shall be one Director from each of seven Director Districts as established by the School Board. One Director shall reside in each of the respective Director Districts. Primary nominations, as described in B02.02, shall be on a Director District basis, and all Directors shall be elected by voters in the entire District. Maps shall be developed and made available to candidates for the Board and other citizens showing the boundaries of the Director Districts. The School Board shall re-district after each decennial census or in conjunction with King County adjustments.
