SEATTLE PUBLIC SCHOOLS	SELECTION AND ADOPTION OF INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS	C20.00 Revised May 1999

POLICY

It is the policy of the Seattle School Board to adopt all basic instructional materials, including textbooks. Responsibility to approve supplemental and library materials is delegated to the principal of the building in which they are used.

Reference: WAC 392.190.055 Textbook and instructional materials, elimination of sex bias
RCW 28A.320.230 Selection of instructional materials
RCW 28A.330.100 Power to supply books

Note: At an election in 1897, the School District was authorized to furnish free textbooks and supplies in all grades in the regular schools. No change in this requirement can be made unless again the question is voted upon by the electorate.

(In this context, free textbooks shall be supplied once per course of instruction per student.)

Supreme Court Decision – 1922 – Hand vs. Seattle School District No. 1 118W 439, 203, P940

Former Code: G11.00