

INGRAHAM DAILY BULLETIN

<http://www.seattleschools.org/schools/ingraham/>

May 9th - Friday

Word for the Day: posthaste • \POHST-HAYST\ • adverb : with all possible speed

In the 16th century, "haste, post, haste" was used to inform "posts," as couriers were then called, that a letter was urgent and must be hastily delivered. Posts would then speedily gallop along a route with a series of places at which to get a fresh horse or to relay the letter to a fresh messenger.

Friday Lunch Menu: Chef's Choice

Monday Lunch Menu: Beef Ravioli, Green Beans, Rolls

Friday News:

The fine list is posted in the A.C- Check for YOUR name ! TGallaher

Other News:

Want to be a Peer Mediator? Anyone can apply to be a Peer Mediator and we are looking for future leaders. Come and be a part of this award winning program. The application period is from Monday, May 5 to Friday, May 23rd. Applications are available in the Counseling Center, from Mrs. Munding, and in senior hall. LM

Join us for One World Now's Third Annual Get Global Conference, May 10th at Seattle University. Activities will include guest speaker David Akuien, student and educator workshops, community entertainment, eight hours of community service credit for high school students, a free t-shirt and a chance to win an iPod. For questions, please call (206) 223-7703 or email info@oneworldnow.org. Lori Penor OneWorld Now

Early Childhood Education Conference, Sat. May 17, 9:30-2:30, Rainier Community Center, 4600 38th Ave. S. Students interested in careers working with children can meet with advisors from King County 2 and 4 year colleges. Free lunch & door prizes. Volunteers also needed before, during and after the conference. Sign up and get more information at 1-866-308-3224. <http://www.childcarenet.org/providers/scholarships/ece-conference>

NSCC Career Day Field Trip: All students planning to attend the NSCC Field Trip with Mrs. Grant on May 12th need to return signed permission forms by Friday. On Monday, May 12th meet in front of the school at 8:45 AM dressed professionally. Let's make a good impression. SGrant

Homework Center Continues On! Even though the WASL is over, Homework Center is not. Every Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday from 2:30-3:45pm. PColino
Monday May 19--130B (J. Sciarrone's)

Global Youth Leadership Institute: Deadline is May 13th – contact Christina Hirsch @ #206-441-5910. This is an intense 4 day program at the UW campus.

Attention JV Soccer Players: Please return your uniforms to Mr. Wetzberger after school this week. If not returned, you will be on the fine list for $150. JWetzberger

YES! Youth Engaged in Service summer program for students 13-18 who live within Seattle city limits and have a social security number. Complete 120 volunteer hours and then get $150 stipend. 60 hours might count for service. Applications available in Career Center and Counseling Office; due May 16

<http://www.seattle.gov/parks/teens/>

STEPS summer teen job readiness program for students 14-19 with a social security number. Must be able to lift 30 pounds, stand/walk for extended period of time and work in teams. Earn $599 at end of program. Send letter of interest and resume to Seattle Parks by May 28. Get more information in Career Center, Counseling Office or at <http://www.seattle.gov/parks/teens/>

Congratulations to Joshua Long: Josh was selected by his teacher and writer-in-residence to read an original piece of writing at the annual celebration of writers in the schools student reading at the Benaroya Hall on Thursday, May 22nd. Joshua was one out of 31 students selected. CThomas

Got Bass? Sign up for Stereo Wars on Campus Day in the A.C. Anytime. T. Huffer

Auto Collision Repair Careers Seminars: May 10, 9-5 at WESCO, 21601 66th Ave. W., Lynnwood or May 31, at Lake Washington Tech. Institute, 11605 132nd Ave. NE, Kirkland. I-CAR is sponsoring these free seminars worth $125. These careers can pay $60,000/year. Register at aracarstareverett@comcast.net. Details: 425 387-3692. CHagood

Career Information: Females in information technology (Computer) careers field trip to Seattle Central Community College on Friday, May 16. Nordstrom, Starbucks and other companies participating. 10th-12th grade females can get permission slips from Mr. White in room 204 or in the Career Center during lunch on Tues/Fri. CHagood

Show your Ingraham Pride – Wear Spirit Gear! Small sizes in sweatpants have arrived. Come to room #114 before school, during break or lunch and after school. Check out the showcase by room #114 for other spirit gear items. It's a Matter of Pride! SGrant

Yearbooks on Sale this Week: Yearbooks on sale this week for $75. Prices will go up to $80 on Campus Day so buy yours NOW outside of the AC at lunch. MRobbins