

Literature Circle Agreements

How will we make sure we honor our agreement?

1. Take responsibility for yourself. That means be prepared, be an active participant, and be respectful. Everyone listens; everyone talks.
2. Come prepared by having read the selection and completed the written work.
3. Pay attention to everyone. Avoid side conversations.
4. Use only kind comments, no insults.
5. Disagree agreeably; tell why you don't agree.
6. Ask questions if people don't talk.
7. Ask the next discussion question after everyone has had a chance to talk.
