Field Day Fun!

Come and join us for one of the greatest fun-filled days of the year. We need volunteers to help staff the various games and stations for our summer-send off. This is a day that is all about our kids- come and help us make it a success! Mark your calendars for Monday, June 16th from 11:30-3:00. A sign-up sheet has already come home in KidMail- if you need another form, extras are in the office. Contact Lori Green or Lara Lorenz for any questions.

Coed Beach Volleyball Summer Camps at Golden Gardens

Come join us for a ton of fun in the sand with North Beach Volleyball. A great opportunity for boys and girls ages 9-13 to dive (literally) into beach volleyball, with a camp focused on fun, developing basic volleyball skills, and team building. Summer dates are GG#1 July 21-25 and GG#2 August 18-22, 9am-noon, Go to <http://www.sandboxsports.net/> to register, or contact Willie Moneda at 206-321-9861 or willie@sandboxsports.net for more info.

Pedicures Make $ for LH:

$500 raised last year! During the month of May at Jenny Nails on 15th and 73rd, $10 will be donated to our school for any pedicure client who mentions Loyal Heights (client pays for the $20 service; Jenny Nails donates funds at month-end). Clients need not be Loyal Heights families to raise funds for our school... 782.5408 for appointments.

Great Author at the Ballard Library

Meet Linda Sue Park and hear her read from Keeping Score, her new book for grades 4-6. Ms. Park is famous for her great historical fiction, including Newbery Medal winner A Single Shard.

Set in Brooklyn in the 1950s, Keeping Score follows Maggie, an avid Dodgers fan who wishes desperately for two things—for her beloved team to win the pennant, and for her friend Jim, a fireman sent to fight in the Korean War, to come home safely.

Saturday, May 24, 2008, 4 - 5:30pm

Dodger-themed baseball prizes will be given away!

Library events and programs are free and everyone is welcome. Registration is not required.

Beaver Notes is published every Thursday.
