Graduation Requirement—Book Read

Q: How many books must my student read to meet graduation requirements?

A: 20

Q: How does my student report the books he or she has read to receive credit?

A: Your student fills out a “Book Log” and turns it in to his or her advisor. Book Logs are available on the wall outside the Counselor’s office. Book logs can also be created on computer as long as they include: student name, student ID number, date, advisor name, book title, author. The following information should also be included in paragraph form using complete sentences:

- (1) Summarize the plot.
- (2) Identify two main characters and explain what role each played in the book.
- (3) Explain why you chose the book.
- (4) Explain why you liked or did not like the book.

Q: If the District eliminated this requirement, why does TCS still have it?

A: As part of our school’s mission to ready our students for college, we felt it was crucial to maintain this requirement. Reading is one of the greatest gifts we can provide our children. And, like most things, reading is habit-forming? It is our goal to encourage the habit plus help students develop the love of reading.
