

TUESDAY
May 6, 2008

DAILY BULLETIN

Lunch Entrée: Hot Italian Meatball Sandwich w/cheese, Fries

Quote of the Week: "Teaching is the profession that teaches all other professions."

STUDENTS

SENIORS: If you haven't taken The Chinook's survey about what you are doing next year and your advice, please stop by room 133 and fill one out. Don't be left out of the next issue. (McKinney)

VOLLEYBALL MEETING for all interested girls this THURSDAY (5/8), in the girls' locker room during lunch.

SALSA, SWING, BALLROOM DANCE: Remember Wednesday (5/7) is the first lesson in the intermediate series of Dance Class. Remember to bring your checks or $30 cash, and girls wear skirts and guys look nice. A photographer from the newspaper will be taking photos on Wednesday beginning at 5:30 pm. Checks need to be written to Carol Viger. (Carol Viger-938-4204)

SOUTH SEATTLE COMMUNITY COLLEGE: Seniors interested in attending SSCC next fall are invited to the Trio Talent Search "Taking Care of Business event on Tuesday, May 13. You will have the opportunity to take the Compass test, make an appointment with an advisor, check financial aid status and tour the campus. You must bring $15 for the Compass test and picture ID. Lunch will be provided. Permission slips available outside Career Center and must be returned to Ms. Sneed in the Career Center by May 7. Space is limited.

REGISTRATION FOR SUMMER SCHOOL HAS STARTED! Summer classes will run between June 30-July 31 with July 3rd and 4th off. If you need to make up credits, please see your counselor NOW to get signed up. (Vanselow)

SUMMER TRAFFIC EDUCATION: All registration for summer traffic education classes will be conducted by mail. Interested students should pickup a yellow mail-in registration packet from the Counseling Office. All classes start June 23 and end July 23. You may register to attend a school that is convenient for you get to during the summer. If you have questions, call 252-4735.

STUDENTS & STAFF

THANKS TO EVERYONE WHO PARTICIPATED IN THE JEANS DRIVE! The Jeans added an important element to the Freshman Language arts Sweatshop Exhibit, and we were able to donate 45 pairs of jeans to the St. Francis House in Capitol Hill. The totals for the class competition were: Class of 2008—0 pairs, Class of 2009—5 pair, Class of 2010—11 pair, and class of 2011 won the competition by donating 29 pairs of jeans. Way to go WestSide! Keep supporting each other and the community.

SCHOOL NURSE DAY is this Wednesday, May 7. A big thank you to our school nurse, Sandy Polzin, and the Teen Health Center nurse for helping Westside Wildcats stay healthy throughout the year! (Dabek)