NEWS RELEASE
Feb. 25, 2019

Contact: Tim Robinson, Media Relations Specialist
206-252-0203 | 206-465-5404 – c
tirobinson@seattleschools.org

12 New Members for Seattle Public Schools
Athletic Hall of Fame
Induction Ceremony March 7

SEATTLE – The Seattle Public Schools (SPS) Athletic Department is pleased to announce that 12 new members are slated to be inducted into the SPS Athletic Hall of Fame (AHoF).

This latest class of former student athletes will join the 36 existing members of the SPS AHoF during a March 7, 2019 induction ceremony in Seattle.

This year’s SPS Athletic Hall of Fame inductees are:

Jack Medica (Lincoln HS 1932) - Swimming
Jeff Heath (Garfield HS 1934) - Baseball
Don Bies (Ballard HS 1955) - Golf
Ruth Jessen (Roosevelt HS 1955) - Golf
Jawaan Oldham (Cleveland HS 1976) - Basketball
Debbie Adams (Roosevelt HS 1977) – Track, Basketball
Lisa Moldrem (Ingraham HS 1977) - Tennis, Basketball, Softball, Soccer
Sue Stimac (Ballard HS 1978) - Basketball, Tennis, Volleyball
Rick Noji (Franklin HS 1985) - Track
Doug Christie (Rainier Beach HS 1988) – Basketball, Track
Ross Flowers (Garfield HS 1989) – Basketball, Track
Aaron Brooks (Franklin HS 2003) - Basketball

The induction ceremony, from 5:15-8:30pm at the Washington Athletic Club, 1325 6th Ave., Seattle, is open to the public. Tickets are available for purchase online at Brown Paper Tickets.
About the SPS Athletic Hall of Fame

SPS AHoF committee members research and review over 140 years of SPS athletics to select each year’s inductees.

The SPS AHoF is dedicated to connecting and engaging the larger Seattle community with SPS athletics, to empower current students with a rich history, pride and local role models, and to encourage financial support of high school athletics.

Additional information about the event can be found on the SPS AHoF website.

# #