

ADVANCED PLACEMENT CHANGES for 2019-2020

NEW!

Students must register to take their AP Exams
by November 1st, 2019

The College Board is introducing new policies for 2019-2020

- 📌 Fall Registration for AP Exams
- 📌 Updated Unit Guides for Teachers with additional instructional strategies to prepare students for the exam
- 📌 New online Dashboard for students to receive personalized feedback using the new digital tools and for teachers to regularly monitor student progress

Take Time to Prepare for the Upcoming Changes

- 📌 Students and families eligible English Language Learning, Special Education or 504 services may also be eligible for accommodations on their AP Exam. Students should contact their school counselor for more information.
- 📌 Students eligible for free or reduced lunch are also eligible for an AP Fee Waiver and should complete an updated Free and Reduced Lunch Form for 2019-2020.
- 📌 Look for more information about how to register for your AP Exams from your teachers of AP courses or your school's AP Coordinator.
- 📌 The fee to take an AP Exam is $102 per exam.
- 📌 Check the date of your AP Exam (on the back of this page) and mark your calendar.
- 📌 Seattle Public Schools administers over 5,100 AP Exams per year across 11 comprehensive high schools, so we cannot offer late testing to individual students.

What is the Advanced Placement Program?

The Advanced Placement (AP) Program allows students to take rigorous college level courses while still in high school. Students may earn college credit and/or advanced placement into upper level college courses by taking AP exams. Many colleges and universities recognize AP courses when making admissions decisions.

Students must register to take their AP Exams by November 1st, 2019

Look for more information about how to register for your AP Exams from your teachers of AP courses or your school's AP Coordinator when school is back in session.
