There is no one quite like you. You are special and unique and have something to share with the world. Song lyrics give you a chance to share how you’re feeling, what you’re thinking, and your observations about the world. Let’s use what we know about rhythms and syllables to write a chant!

1. Take a look at the rhythms below. If you’ve already learned these rhythms, you can say or clap each one with a steady tempo. If you haven’t learned about them yet, you can count the number of notes and imagine their sound, or just make your very own. Anything is okay!

2. Answer the questions in each box. Then, use the words in your answer to create a pattern you like in the boxes at the end of each phrase. If you have learned to write rhythms, add rhythms on the staff to show the pattern you have made.

What are some things that make you smile?

I smile when I think of something that's

What are some things you like to do outside?

I like to go outside and play. When the weather's nice, I like to go
Flowers and trees outside are blooming. Can you describe some flowers that you see?

It's spring in Seattle, it's spring now. I can see some flowers here:

If you could be anywhere right now, where would you be?
If you could do anything, what would you do?

Take a deep breath, Imagine that you are

MUSIC VIDEO LESSONS
For more lessons, go to Seattle Public Schools YouTube site and search "Music".
https://www.youtube.com/c/SeattlePublicSchoolsTV
Lesson by: KT Raschko at Kimball Elementary