SPS Recruiting for Additional Custodians

SEATTLE – Seattle Public Schools has announced a focused effort to hire more custodians in order to provide essential services as the district begins providing in-person instruction for some students over the next few weeks.

The district is seeking both full-time assistant custodians and temporary hourly custodians.

- 28 Assistant Custodians – full-time, 260-day employment;
- 80 Temporary Custodians – hourly, until June 27, 2021.

The SPS Human Resources department, which is actively recruiting for the positions on several career and job sites, provides this overview of the positions:

“In this role you will be responsible for performing a variety of cleaning tasks, minor repairs and general labor tasks to create and maintain a safe, clean and orderly environment for our students, staff, parents and the general public. This position will require that you to have the ability to travel to various school buildings and work swing shift hours from 2:30 pm to approximately 11:00 pm.”

For more information about the openings, please see the SPS Job Opportunities website.

For more information about the district’s plan to resume in-person instruction, please see the SPS website.
