

Do you know a language besides English? Can you read and write it too?

World Language Credit Testing Information 2023-2024

For Seattle High School Students:

1. Find out if you qualify and which tests to take:
<https://www.seattleschools.org/departments/international-education/world-language-credit-testing/>
2. Check with your school counselor about testing dates at your high school
OR
Register for World Language Credit Testing online. Testing is remote using Microsoft Teams. Some in person testing options may be available later this year.
World Language Credit Testing Sign-up

Testing is sponsored for 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th graders in Seattle Public Schools.

To earn 1-4 world language credits in your language, how well can you do the following?

- I can understand ideas on familiar topics expressed through phrases, short sentences, and frequently used expressions.
- I can understand the main idea and some details in simple texts that contain familiar vocabulary.
- I can exchange information with another person about familiar tasks, topics and activities.
- I can use a series of phrases and sentences to provide basic information about familiar topics.
- I can write simple descriptions and short messages and request or provide information on familiar topics.

Upcoming Test Dates: All Test Dates are on Saturdays

October 7, 2023 | October 28, 2023 | November 18, 2023 | December 9, 2023 |
January 20, 2024 | February 10, 2024 | March 23, 2024 | April 27, 2024

Location: This year testing will be offered remotely online using Microsoft Teams. In-person testing dates may be released later this year.

Note: Check with your school counselor as most middle and high schools also offer on-site testing.

Check for updates at:

<https://www.seattleschools.org/departments/international-education/world-language-credit-testing/>

Questions? Please contact Gosia Stone 206-252-0691 mjstone@seattleschools.org