School and Staff Responsibilities:
Seattle Public Schools staff members are ethically bound to:

- Ensure an inclusive, safe, and welcoming environment where students feel seen, heard, and valued;
- Know, care for, and establish positive relationships with students;
- Utilize verbal de-escalation skills in addressing student behavior;
- Provide students the opportunities to learn from mistakes with culturally responsive behavioral, social, and emotional support;
- Implement disciplinary responses that are least disruptive to the student-school relationship, while also maximizing instructional time;
- Partner with students and their families to identify and support their needs;
- Examine their own implicit bias, while working from a culturally responsive and trauma informed lens;
- Seek out, attend, and engage in professional learning that promotes the use of anti-racist practices.

School Safety and Security Services Program
Safety and Security staff support each school's principal in keeping the school safe. They may help address exterior issues, like unauthorized adults attempting to enter the building or interior issues, like students fighting. In all cases, their focus is on matters related to safety. The Safety and Security team is interested in fostering an optimal learning environment and acting as a deterrent to unsafe or poor behavior. While law enforcement may be called in extreme circumstances, like when there is a gun on campus, most safety issues are handled by Safety and Security and school administration teams without law enforcement involvement. If you need help in staying safe in school, you can reach out to your school security specialist, principal, or the Safety and Security Office at 206-252-0707. (See, Board Policy No. 4311 and Superintendent Procedure No. 4311SP)

Student Rights

As a member of the school community, students have the right to:

- An inclusive, safe and welcoming classroom and school culture;
- Access to a high-quality education and extracurricular activities;
- Be seen, known, cared for, heard, and valued;
- Experience visibility and representation of your culture in your school’s staff and throughout the curriculum;
- Be given opportunity to learn from mistakes with culturally responsive social emotional and behavioral support;
- A clear pathway for reporting racist activity without retaliation.

Additionally, as citizens, students have fundamental rights and schools may not unduly infringe on those rights:

- Freedom from Unlawful Discrimination
- Freedom of Speech
- Freedom of Press
- Freedom of Speech
- Freedom from Unlawful Discrimination
- Freedom to Petition for a Redress of Grievances
- Freedom to Peaceably Assemble
- Freedom of Press
- Freedom to Pursue an Education While in Custody of the District
- Right to Equal Education Opportunity

Student Responsibilities

As a member of the school community, you should take personal responsibility to:

- Ask for help when needed;
- Treat others with respect;
- Attend and be prepared for school;
- Follow district and school rules;
- Follow dress code (Board Policy No. 3224); and
- Respect property (Board Policy No. 3520).

For more information regarding your responsibilities, please refer to page 6 in the Basic Rules of Seattle Public Schools.

What Happens if a Student Breaks a Rule?

If you break a school rule, you have a right to:

- Timely investigations into disciplinary incidents;
- Tell your side of the story, and have it documented;
- Explanation of disciplinary decision/response to you and family; and
- Reasonable disciplinary response to disciplinary incident;
- Written notification within 24 hours to you and family after initial verbal notification;
- Be provided communication in identified home language;
- Be provided information on right to appeal and due process;
- Be treated with dignity and be allowed to tell your side of the story;
- Have your family involved in any disciplinary response;
- An actively anti-racist disciplinary response with reasonable consequences, including restorative practices and/or mediation;
- Stay informed in your identified home language;
- Request appeal of suspensions and expulsions within five (5) school business days and emergency removals within three (3) school business days;
- In order for a school leader to emergency remove a student, a school must have sufficient cause to believe that the student’s presence poses: (a) an immediate and continuing danger to other students or school personnel; or (b) an immediate and continuing threat of material and substantial disruption of the educational process. If a student is suspended, expelled, or emergency removed, they will receive the written Notice of Disciplinary Action (NDA) within 24 hours.

What if a Student Thinks They Are Being Treated Unfairly?

If the school leader proposes a disciplinary response, and a student thinks that is unfair or inappropriate, the student has the right to appeal the imposed discipline. The various processes for appealing are contained in the Basic Rules of Seattle Public Schools, which may be obtained from the student’s school, from the Student Discipline Office at 206-252-0820 or on the Seattle Public Schools’ website at www.seattleschools.org.

Notice to Students and Families Required by Federal Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act of 1989

Seattle Public Schools prohibits the unlawful possession, use, or distribution of drugs and alcohol by anyone on school property, on school-sponsored transportation, or as part of school activities. Compliance with this rule is mandatory; students who disregard the prohibition may be subject to a disciplinary response. Seattle Public Schools offers or can assist in arranging access to drug and alcohol education, counseling, and recovery support. For further information, contact your school leader, school social worker or counselor.
