

Denny Middle School

Book Bingo

Seattle Public Schools is committed to making its online information accessible and usable to all people, regardless of ability or technology. Meeting web accessibility guidelines and standards is an ongoing process that we are consistently working to improve.

While Seattle Public Schools endeavors to only post documents optimized for accessibility, due to the nature and complexity of some documents, an accessible version of the document may not be available. In these limited circumstances, the District will provide equally effective alternate access.

For questions and more information about this document, please contact the following:

Kate Risi
Librarian, Denny Middle school
karisi@seattleschools.org

A game to keep students engaged in reading over the summer.

DENNY MIDDLE SCHOOL

BOOK BINGO

Read 5 in a row, across or diagonal and spin for a prize in the fall. Write the title of the book you completed in each square. Each square should be a different book! Have a grown-up in your life sign the sheet at the bottom.

Name: _____

A book with at least some writing in a second language	A book with a one word title	A book that was adapted into a movie or TV show	A non-fiction book	A book set in the past
A manga	A book from a genre you've never tried before	A book with either black, blue or white on the cover	A Denny summer suggestion	Read a book to someone else
A book about a real person	A book about a culture different than yours	Read (some of) a book outside	A graphic novel	A book from the public library
A book with a face on the cover	A book with a name in the title	A book with a scary cover	A book with a non-human character	A book over 150 pages
A book published before you were born	A book about sports	A book written in verse	Read in your safe place	A book that has a sequel

Student signature: _____

Adult signature: _____