

Franklin High School – Community Service Opportunities
Get Involved! Make a Difference! Contribute to our Community!

Type	Organization / Website	Mission	Community Service Opportunity	Email and Phone
Camp Counselor with kids	Campfire Camp Counselor in Training: https://campfireseattle.org/camp-sealth-overnight-camp/camp-descriptions/leadership-camps/counselor-in-training/	Counselor-In-Training (CIT) is a four week long, in-depth leadership program that fosters independence and builds skills to work towards being a camp staff member. CITs join a long tradition of spirited, dedicated high school youth that love camp and want to work with kids. As a group, you'll create unforgettable memories and lasting friendships. As individuals, you'll grow in confidence, make a difference in kids' lives.	The CIT program combines many different elements to give teens a well-rounded experience and develop skills in multiple areas. Leadership workshops focus on areas like goal-setting and decision-making. CITs will also get trained in skills such as behavior management, working with special needs, and handling emergencies. Hands-on experiences include job shadows with counselors and activity specialists, planning and leading an All Camp Event, and doing a full week "live-in" – assisting with one cabin for session.	info@campfireseattle.org (206) 461-8550
Environment	Duwamish River Cleanup Coalition http://duwamishcleanup.org	DRCC/TAG is involved in all aspects of the cleanup of the Duwamish River, working to ensure the cleanup meets community standards by restoring environmental health and protecting the fishers and families who use the river as well as reflecting the priorities, values and will of the people who live in the region.	DRCC/TAG is working for A River For All – a cleanup that truly protects the river, its fish and wildlife, and the health of all its people.	contact@duwamishcleanup.org 206-954-0218
Spanish Related	El Centra de la Raza http://www.elcentrodeklaraza.org	As an organization grounded in the Latino community, our mission is to build unity across all racial and economic sectors, to organize, empower, and defend our most vulnerable and marginalized populations and to bring justice, dignity, equality, and freedom to all the peoples of the world.	Our volunteers are the lifeblood of El Centro de la Raza. We have volunteer opportunities available for individuals, groups, and English or Spanish speakers who would like to become part of the community of El Centro de la Raza.	Pérez Lally, Denise dperezlally@elcentrodeklaraza.org (206) 957-4609
Festival	Folklife Festival www.nwfolklife.org	Northwest Folklife Festival, a celebration of music, diversity and artistic traditions at Seattle Center that is now the nation's largest community-powered arts festival.	Folklife continues to be presented without admission charge. In order to do this, we rely on the support of our amazing team of 500+ volunteers who do everything from greeting at the entrances, working in our hospitality lounge to checking-in performers.	volunteers@nwfolklife.org

LBGTQIA	Gay City www.gaycity.org/	Seattle's LGBTQ Center promotes wellness in LGBTQ communities by providing health services, connecting people to resources, fostering arts, and building community.	Gay City provides various volunteer opportunities for youth. Support with your time and talent by joining the volunteer crew. https://www.gaycity.org/uploads/Volunteer_Forms/Volunteer_Application_Form.pdf	volunteer@gaycity.org
Education	Girls Rock Math http://www.girlsrockmathematics.com/	Girls Rock Math provides thought-provoking, creative experiences in math, empowering girls to develop confidence in their skills and a life-long interest in mathematics.	We are providing summer camp counselor opportunities for girls to work in STEAM and obtain service hours by assisting instruction during the camps with elementary and middle school ages girls.	Pamela Quadros pamela@girlsrockmathematics.com 206-240-5046
Health Care	Highline Cancer Center https://resources.finalsite.net/images/v1527280061/highlineschools.org/jtydzgaf4gfealkdti4g/HighlineCancerCenter2017.pdf www.chifranciscan.org	Highline Cancer Center has received national recognition for excellence in cancer including the Outstanding Achievement Award from the Commission on Cancer (CoC) for excellence across all facets of care. We're proud to be among the best cancer programs in the country accredited by the American College of Surgeons Commission on Cancer, adhering to the highest standards of cancer patient care and outcomes.	Highline Cancer Center is seeking high school volunteers who are interested in healthcare issues and careers, especially in cancer prevention and treatment! Highline is an innovative Cancer Center offering the latest treatments including chemotherapy, biological therapy, robot-assisted surgery and naturopathic treatments. Take advantage of this rare opportunity available to you and start making a big difference in people's lives!	kcouret@highlinemedical.org 206-988-5767
Radio	KEXP Radio www.kexp.org	KEXP enriches people's lives by championing music and discovery.	We offer a range of opportunities for high school students. We have internships, ongoing volunteer positions and a music library page program.	internships@kexp.org
Shelter	Mary's Place www.marysplaceseatle.org	Mary's Place empowers homeless women, children, and families to reclaim their lives by providing shelter, nourishment, resources, healing and hope in a safe community.	Volunteer opportunities available including prepping meals, sorting donations, and leading activities for kids!	volunteer@marysplaceseatle.org

Popular Culture and Music	MoPop www.mopop.org/about-mopop/join-the-team/volunteer www.mopop.org/programs-plus-education/programs/youth-advisory-board	The Museum of Pop Culture (MoPOP) is a leading-edge nonprofit museum, dedicated to the ideas and risk-taking that fuel contemporary popular culture.	MoPOP offers a variety of volunteer opportunities to high school students. Volunteers help support our interactives, provide information to guests about the museum, support our dynamic public events including concerts, film screenings and more. High School students are also encouraged to apply to be a part of our Youth Advisory Board (YAB). YAB members directly influence teen programming at MoPOP and collaborate with local musicians, artists, and community groups.	Volunteers@MoPOP.org
Aerospace Engineering & Flight School	Museum of Flight http://www.museumofflight.org/Education/Explore-programs/map	The Museum of Flight exists to acquire, preserve and exhibit historically significant air and space artifacts, which provide a foundation for scholarly research and lifelong learning programs that inspire an interest in and understanding of science, technology and the humanities.	The Museum Apprentice Program is a year-round volunteer program where students work on projects related to the museum field, museum education, oral histories, living history, documentary making, and public service. There is an eight hour required training course and regular MAP meetings every Thursday evening. Learn about exhibit design, practice presentation and teaching techniques, and delve into aviation and space related topics.	map@museumofflight.org 206-768-7187
Science Internship	Pacific Science Center's Discover Corps www.pacificsciencecenter.org	Discovery Corps is a youth development program that puts young people on the front line of Pacific Science Center's mission to ignite curiosity in every child and fuels a passion for discovery, experimentation, and critical thinking. PSC is looking for motivated youth to dive into exciting, interactive experiences while learning new skills.	Discovery Corps consists of a system of training and assessment leading to increased levels of responsibility, pay and skill. Pacific Science Center looks for motivated youth ages 14 and older who are interested in gaining job and life skills while volunteering and working to provide Pacific Science Center's guests a unique and interactive experience.	volunteers@pacsci.org (206) 443-2865
Science Exhibit and Camp Assistant	Pacific Science Center www.pacificsciencecenter.org/volunteers/volunteer-opportunities/	Pacific Science Center ignites curiosity in every child and fuels a passion for discovery, experimentation, and critical thinking in all of us.	Volunteer opportunities for teens include opportunities including: Science Educator in Training for Summer Camps, Special Exhibit Volunteer, Guest Ambassador Volunteer and Street Team!	volunteers@pacsci.org 206.443.2881

Bike Instructor	Pedalheads Bike Camp http://www.pedalheads.com/	An exciting and challenging bike camp offering eight instructional levels which take kids from training wheels to trails!	We are looking for enthusiastic, energetic and fun Instructors to join our team in our camps. If you want leadership experience, and like working outside, then apply! https://www.pedalheads.com/about/join-the-team/Pedalheads/Instructor-Washington	washingtonhiring@pedalheads.com 1.888.886.6464
Public Service, International Business	Port of Seattle Internships www.portseattle.org/JobStudents-and-Veterans/Pages/Internships.aspx	The Port of Seattle is a public agency to create quality jobs throughout the diverse communities of King County by advancing trade and commerce, promoting industrial growth, and stimulating economic development	There are internship opportunities in many different career paths at the Port of Seattle. Earn $15.75/hour while you learn the business skills you need to succeed.	Amberine Wilson Wilson.A2@portseattle.org 206-787-3661
Food Bank	Rainier Valley Food Bank http://www.rvfb.org/	Our mission is to nourish with good food, empower with knowledge, and serve with compassion.	RVFB has a diverse, interesting and fun volunteer base. We rely on volunteers to process and distribute food, provide marketing and fundraising help, organize fun community events, and make some new friends!	info@rvfb.org (206) 723-4105 http://www.rvfb.org/take-action/volunteer/volunteer-application/
Refugees	REWA (Refugee Women's Alliance) https://www.rewa.org/	Refugee Women's Alliance (ReWA) is an award-winning, nationally recognized nonprofit that provides holistic services to help refugee and immigrant women and families thrive.	Although most of ReWA's volunteer positions require the volunteer to be 18 or older, we could use some younger volunteers to help with critical administrative support and set up/support at fundraising events.	ramlah@rewa.org 206.721.0243 Ext. 227
Marine Science & Education	Seattle Aquarium www.seattleaquarium.org/youth-ocean-advocates	Youth Ocean Advocates use their time, talents, and passion to conserve our marine environment. Discover the variety of ways you can become involved as a Youth Ocean Advocate at the Seattle Aquarium below.	We're looking for passionate young people who have an interest in learning about the ocean and will work to inspire others to take conservation action.	aquateens@seattleaquarium.org
Health Care	Seattle Children's Hospital https://www.seattlechildrens.org/giving/volunteer/hospital-volunteers/requirements/	Seattle Children's Hospital provides hope, care and cures to help every child live the healthiest and most fulfilling life possible.	Seattle Children's depends upon reliable and dedicated volunteers to ensure the best possible care for our patients and their families. We ask that volunteers commit to the requirements and expectations to ensure the safety and well-being of our patients and families.	Apply here: https://www.seattlechildrens.org/giving/volunteer/hospital-volunteers/application-process/ 206-987-2153 800-635-1432 (toll-free)

Theater	Seattle Children's Theatre www.sct.org www.sct.org/Support/Volunteers	Seattle Children's Theatre (SCT) is one of the most prominent theatres for young audiences in the United States and the world. The mission of Seattle Children's Theatre is to provide children of all ages access to professional theatre, with a focus on new works, and theatre education.	USHERS at public performances is for students 14 years of age or older and duties include any of the following: stuffing and passing out programs, light cleaning of the theatre, ticket taking, stage watching, assist at concessions. CLASSROOM ASSISTANTS are 15 years of age or older Help the teacher engage the students in dramatic exercises and storytelling. There is a specific form for this position and volunteers are contacted by the Drama School Coordinator.	Tammy Hase tammyh@sct.org
Firefighter	Seattle Fire Department www.seattle.gov/fire/jobs-and-opportunities/cadet-program	Seattle Fire Department saves lives and protect property through emergency medical services, fire and rescue response and fire prevention. We respond immediately when any member of our community needs help with professional, effective and compassionate service.	The Fire Cadet program is a hands-on training program offered by the Seattle Fire Department aimed at teaching firefighting skills and culture to high school students and post high school young adults.	Isaac Rivera isaac.rivera@seattle.gov Julie George julie.george@seattle.gov
Film	Seattle International Film Festival www.siff.net/volunteer	SIFF is Seattle's leading year-round film organization that brings the best in international and independent film to the Seattle area with the Seattle International Film Festival,	Anyone at least 16 years old can volunteer. Most volunteer opportunities occur during the 25 days of spring festival.	volunteers@siff.net.
Library	Seattle Public Library www.spl.org/volunteer	Our mission is to bring people, information and ideas together to enrich lives and build community. The library provides resources that promote literacy and lifelong learning for people of all ages.	Teen Service Learning Groups work on group projects that match the interests of the teens with the skills they wish to build, in order to meet a community need such as building fun and informative displays, teaching science and art classes to kids, teaching technology to senior citizens, planning events and activities, and community research projects. Learning Buddies pair you with an elementary school student to help increase the younger student's confidence in reading and homework.	anne.vedella@spl.org
Theater	Seattle Repertory Theatre www.seattlerep.org	Seattle Repertory Theatre is a non-profit arts organization that's mission is to offer the best mix of plays, support the most exciting artists and deepen our connection to one another through the art of theater.	Each season, Seattle Rep has a multitude of volunteer opportunities ranging from administrative support (assisting with mailings and general office assistance), special events support, and volunteering ushering.	volunteers@seattlerep.org

Birds	Seward Park Audubon http://sewardpark.audubon.org	Seward Park is a remarkable place that continually teaches us the power and resiliency of the natural world. Learn about the birds, wildlife, and plant life of the park through one of our naturalist-guided hikes. Help us protect the forest's integrity by joining us for a community restoration project. This is our park to love and protect for future generations.	We rely on the talents of our volunteers to promote the efforts of the Center. Whether you're a budding naturalist or an organized decision-maker, we need you!	https://twitter.com/sewardaudubon
Seattle Parks	Seattle Parks and Recreation http://www.seattle.gov	We have a variety of great programs for teens including technology training, free wifi and computer access, jobs, service learning volunteer opportunities, hikes, trips, sports, and more! Check out our offerings below.	We have a variety of current projects that need volunteers. Help us build and maintain our forest lands, improve our shorelines, keep our parks healthy and join rewarding projects that give back to your community! Follow the links under each listing for more information and contact details.	Teen.Programs@seattle.gov (206) 684-4575
Environment	Seattle Conservation Association http://www.thesca.org/cdip https://www.thesca.org/serve/program/northwest	SCA's nationwide network of young conservationists – thousands of students who are as passionate as you are about preserving wildlands, protecting nature in urban areas, and keeping the planet green.	Are you a high school student who is passionate about conservation? Do you like working as part of a team to get things done? Do you just love being outdoors? Join an SCA Crew and plug yourself into SCA's nationwide network of young conservationists - thousands of students who are as passionate about preserving wildlands, protecting nature in urban areas, and keeping the planet green. SCA offers a range of programs for youth ages 15-19.	Use this form to email- http://www.thesca.org/contact
Camp Counselor with kids	Seattle YMCA https://www.seattleyymca.org/sites/default/files/2017-01/2017%20CIT%20Program%20Information.pdf	The Counselor in Training (CIT) program is an intensive, one-month program designed to develop leadership, communication, and teamwork skills in a vibrant camp setting. Together in a small group, CITs will embark on a life-changing experience.	All applicants who live in the Greater Seattle Area should expect to spend ONE half day participating in a combination of individual interviews and group activities. For applicants who live outside of the Seattle area, a phone interview will be scheduled. It is preferred that the applicant is present for the interview process, all of which will take place at the Downtown Seattle YMCA (909 4th Ave).	https://www.seattleyymca.org/colman/teen-leadership https://www.seattleyymca.org/colman/teen-leadership

Snowboard and Service	The Service Board http://www.theserviceboard.org/	The Service Board (TSB) mentors youth to conquer personal and cultural challenges through outdoor adventure, environmental and social justice education, and public service.	The Service Board brings together a group of high-schoolers and adult mentors from a broad range of academic, racial, cultural and economic backgrounds to engage in a demanding six-month program. Program participants meet twice weekly from January through June, with weekend activities rotating between service learning projects and snowboarding, hence our name: the Service Board.	To apply for their core program: http://www.theserviceboard.org/programs/core-program/ info@theserviceboard.org 206-324-7771
Volunteer Club	Skully Serves www.skullyserves.com	Skully Serves focuses on the promotion of volunteerism and encourages youth to become and stay actively involved in their community	Through engaging community outreaches, we connect teenagers with their favorite bands and musicians through volunteering, service learning, and by working together.	Martese Mason mmason@skullyserves.com
Human Service	Southwest Youth & Family Services http://www.swyfs.org/	Our mission is to partner with youth and families to transform their futures.	We have fun and rewarding volunteering opportunities on both a long-term and short-term basis including: After-school tutoring, Reading buddies, Youth mentoring, Event and marketing assistance, One-time group projects, Workshop facilitation for youth and/or adults (computer skills, cooking and nutrition, arts, exercise, etc.)...and more!	volunteer@swyfs.org (206) 937-7680
Public speaking	Sustainability Ambassadors http://www.sustainabilityambassadors.org	We coach exceptionally self-motivated young people in middle school, high school and college to become skilled systems thinkers, public speakers and project managers. As an Ambassador, you develop a Two-YearSchool/Community Work Plan which includes sustainability projects that integrate the goals of your school district, city government, local businesses and non-profits.	Develop projects that align with the skills that you want to develop as a young professional. We offer three internship opportunities. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Equity Advocacy Internship • Leadership Development Internship • College Credit Internship 	info@sustainableseattle.org 206-227-9597
*Tutor Reading	Team Read http://teamread.org/	Teens tutoring kids to achieve reading success	Hundreds of teens from Seattle's public and private middle and high schools apply and are accepted each year to be reading coaches. Receive hourly pay (minimum wage) or saving money for college or earning service learning hours	Bill Eisele weisele@seattleschools.org http://teamread.org/teen-coaches/

Non profit Service	Teens in Public Service http://teensinpublicservice.org/	Teens In Public Service connects teenagers with paid summer internship opportunities at local nonprofits. TIPS is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to producing future leaders committed to their communities by connecting teens with life-changing opportunities and internships at local charitable organizations.	TIPS is looking for high school students ages 15-19 to apply for our summer internship program. Students who have a passion for activism, public service, and community leadership should apply! All internships are paid and last 6-8 weeks during the summer.	Maddie Cohen development@teensinpublicservice.org
Arts	TeenTix teentix.org	TeenTix is Seattle's revolutionary arts access program just for teens. Anyone between the ages of 13 - 19 can sign up for our FREE pass to get into movies, dance, improv, theater, music, visual arts, and more at our 64 partner organizations around town!	In addition to the TeenTix pass, we provide arts leadership training through our New Guard: Youth Leadership Board (volunteer), and arts criticism training with the Press Corps (workshops).	info@teentix.org (206) 233-3959
Museum, Early Childhood Education	The Children's Museum https://thechildrensmuseum.org/	Our mission is to bring to life the joy of discovery for children and their families through fun, creative, hands-on exploration of the world around them. We strive to ignite curiosity and encourage them to become active, life-long learners.	We offer opportunities for individuals to interact with guests, support our staff and help create a wonderful experience for our visiting families. Our volunteer coordination team will work hard to match your skills and talents with our needs and opportunities.	Fill out this form – http://thechildrensmuseum.org/donate/volunteer/volunteer-application/
Foster Youth	Treehouse https://www.treehouseforkids.org/	Treehouse envisions – and strives to create – a world where every child that has experienced foster care has the opportunities and support they need to pursue their dreams and launch successfully into adulthood.	Our service projects for high school students bring students from different schools together to volunteer and support youth in foster care. Volunteers sort donations and prepare merchandise to go into Treehouse's free store for youth in foster care. Our high school shifts allow youth to volunteer without an adult.	volunteer@treehouseforkids.org 206.267.5117 Sign up for shifts here: https://treehouseforkids.volunteerhub.com/lp/highschool/
Music	VERA theveraproject.org	VERA is an all ages, volunteer run, music and art venue, here at Seattle Center! We're all about empowering youth in the art industry, and creating a safe space for people to create.	Students can volunteer at live concerts and participate in our art gallery, audio, screen printing, and leadership committees! We also have internships that rotate out every few months.	volunteer@theveraproject.org
Outdoor Education	Wilderness Awareness School https://wildernessawareness.org/	Wilderness Awareness School helps children and adults cultivate healthy relationships with nature, community and self.	Volunteers and Interns help us deliver a fun and educational camp experience to children, and promote a deeper understanding and appreciation of nature, community and self.	Samuel Bowman samb@wildernessawareness.org

Social Justice & Feminism	Y-WE (Young Women Empowered) http://youngwomenempowered.org/	Y-WE empowers young women from diverse backgrounds to step up as leaders in their schools, communities and the world. We do this through intergenerational mentorship, intercultural collaboration, and creative programs that equip girls with the confidence, resiliency, and leadership skills needed to achieve their goals and improve their communities.	The Youth Leadership Council (YLC) is a program for returning youth who have made an additional commitment to become stewards of Y-WE culture, to contribute their ideas on the direction of the organization and to cultivate their skills as leaders within Lead and in the greater community.	info@y-we.org
Environmental Justice and Activism	W.I.L.D Wilderness Inner-City Leadership Development (WILD) Program https://sites.google.com/a/apialliance.org/wild/welcome	The Wilderness Inner-City Leadership Development (WILD) program is open to 14-19-year olds who are looking to build leadership qualities like self-confidence and teamwork within the context of environmental education, civic engagement, and intergenerational relationship building.	Learn about environmental justice issues, help take care of urban gardens, gain leadership and community activism skills, and earn a stipend or service learning hours.	(206) 601-9707 vkwan@interimcda.org https://sites.google.com/a/apialliance.org/wild/JOIN-WILD
pan-Asian Pacific American Museum	Wing Luke Museum http://www.wingluke.org/volunteer-internships/	Wing Luke Museum connects everyone to the rich history, dynamic cultures and art of Asian Pacific Americans through vivid storytelling and inspiring experiences.	Wing Luke Museum seeks volunteers to staff events and help behind-the-scenes at the nation's only pan-Asian Pacific American museum	Heather Chan volunteer@wingluke.org (206) 623-5124 x105
Global Warming	YMCA EARTH SERVICE CORPS seattlemca.org	YMCA Earth Service Corps is an opportunity to engage youth in a service-based leadership program that addressed growing concerns about the global environment.	Year-Round Leadership Program: YRLs meet weekly over the course of the year and participate in events ranging from service opportunities and outdoor adventures to camper reunions.	Maya Webber mwebber@seattlemca.org
Public Service, Government	Youth Engaged in Service (YES) http://www.seattle.gov/parks/about-us/work-for-us/job-opportunities-for-teens	The YES Program is a great way to gain job skills and work experience, become more involved in your community, stay active throughout the summer, learn more about the Seattle Parks and Recreation, and make new friends!	Sixty hours of the required 120 may be used towards the Seattle public high school service learning graduation requirement with proper pre-approval from the school. YES volunteers can receive a $150 stipend for the remaining 60 hours at the conclusion of the program. YES volunteers must complete all 120 hours.	Teen.Programs@seattle.gov (206) 684-4575